

Nightwood Theatre

Venue Guide

Welcome!

The team at Nightwood Theatre is so excited for you to join us at Nancy & Ed Jackman Performance Centre. Below is some helpful information about the venue to help prepare you for your visit.

The Venue

Nightwood Theatre's new home is Nancy & Ed Jackman Performance Centre, located at 877 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, M4W 3M2. The closest major intersection is Bloor Street and Yonge Street.

Subway

There are close and accessible subway stations located on Lines 1 and 2. Rosedale Station and Bloor-Yonge Station

Rosedale Station is the closest accessible subway station. If you are travelling from Rosedale, you will exit the station and turn left to head south. The Nancy & Ed Jackman Performance Centre will be on your left, and it is about a 5-minute walk or a 350-meter journey from the subway station

If you are travelling from Bloor-Yonge Station, exit onto the east side of Yonge Street to begin travelling north. The entrance to the Nancy & Ed Jackman Performance Centre will be on your right, and it is about a 7-minute walk or a 500-meter journey from the subway station.

Taxi

If you are taking a taxi, request a drop-off at Nightwood Theatre, located at 877 Yonge Street. The theatre is located on the east side of Yonge Street. Please note that there is a bike lane in front of the theatre to be mindful of during drop-offs.

Wheel-Trans

Nightwood Theatre is located at 877 Yonge Street. There is a curb cut directly in front of the theatre however it is located past a bike lane. If you would like to be dropped off on a quieter side street, request a drop off at Aylmer Avenue and Yonge Street, located 150 north of the venue.

Parking

There is no parking on-site, however, there are two accessible parking lots located across the street at 920 and 926 Yonge Street.

Arriving

There is one primary entrance to the theatre and it is located on the east side of Yonge Street. This is what it will look like if you are traveling north from Bloor-Yonge:

This is what it will look like if you are traveling south from Rosedale:

Arriving

This is the entrance to the theatre! Once you arrive, an usher will scan your ticket, and you will head down 4 flights of stairs and through a set of glass doors to enter the space. There are railings on both sides of the stairs and the doors will be propped open. Alternatively, you may use the staff-operated elevator.

Door Width: 36" x 2

Elevator

There is a staff-operated elevator that you are more than welcome to use to enter the space. The usher at the front entrance will lead you there upon request. You will travel through this doorway and then head straight through a set of sliding doors.
